

Hot Topics in Real Estate for the General Practitioner

FEBRUARY 6, 2019
THE WESTIN WALTHAM BOSTON

On February 6, the New England Corporate Counsel Association (NECCA) will host a discussion of hot topics in real estate led by WilmerHale Partner Paul Jakubowski and Counsel Katelyn O'Brien. The economy is booming and companies are expanding their real estate footprints. At this seminar our highly experienced presenters will discuss various issues relating to tenant-side leasing including the following items:

- The Leasing Process – An Overview;
- Market Analysis – An Experienced Broker Will Provide an Overview of Current Market Trends;
- Hot-Button Issues for Tenants;
- Traps to Avoid in the Leasing Process; and
- Post-signing logistics.

This program will provide attorneys and real estate professionals alike with insights from the practitioners who deal with hot button issues on a daily basis in Boston's booming real estate market. Company real estate professionals are encouraged to attend with their legal counsel.
