

6th Annual Cambridge Arbitration Day

MARCH 15–16, 2019
CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY, FACULTY OF LAW

The 6th annual Cambridge Arbitration Day, organized by the Cambridge University Graduate Law Society, is an endeavor to bring together scholars, practitioners and students for a discussion on recent developments in the field of international arbitration. The event will be preceded by the Young Practitioners' Event, organized with ICC Young Arbitrators Forum, on March 15, 2019, aimed at encouraging young practitioners to exchange professional experience and network with a view to strengthen links within the young arbitration community.

On March 15, WilmerHale Counsel Dr. Sarah Ganz will speak during the Young Practitioners' "How to raise your profile in the arbitration network" event. On March 16, WilmerHale Partner Charlie Caher will speak on the topic "Friend or unfriend?" during the "Personal relationships and arbitration" panel.
