

ABA Antitrust Law 2019 Spring Meeting

MARCH 26–29, 2019
THE MARRIOTT MARQUIS

The 67th Spring Meeting of the ABA Section of Antitrust Law brings together more than 3,300 practitioners from 65 countries to learn from an esteemed group of government enforcers, economists, private practitioners, in-house counsel, and academics. Highlights include more than 60 substantive panels about the latest legal developments—including litigation, international, and consumer protection tracks, a mock trial, and numerous opportunities to hear enforcers from around the world discuss competition and consumer protection policy.

Several WilmerHale lawyers will participate in panel discussions during the meeting:

- Heather Tewksbury Nyong'o—"When Separate Counsel is Needed in Antitrust Investigations"
- Hartmut Schneider—"Money Isn't Everything: Non-Price Merger Effects"
- Nicole Callan—"MDL: A Blessing or a Burden?"
