Delos—an international arbitration institution—turned 5 in January 2019. To celebrate this milestone, Delos has initiated a series of events to take a long view of the evolution of international arbitration. Each event features senior, experienced practitioners in a fireside chat to exchange their perspectives on the field, share their personal journeys, and discuss their hopes for the future of arbitration and potential words of caution.

WilmerHale Senior Associate Jonathan Lim will provide the Hong Kong Edition's introductory remarks.
