

XI Belgrade Arbitration Conference

APRIL 5, 2019
UNIVERSITY OF BELGRADE, FACULTY OF LAW

The University of Belgrade Faculty of Law will host the XI Belgrade Arbitration Conference, one of the trademark events of the law school with an ever increasing number of participants.

The conference will include three panels featuring some of the world's leading authorities in the field of arbitration. The first panel will be dedicated to the issues of arbitrators' powers, the second panel will focus on the challenges relating to evidence, and the third panel will focus on procedure.

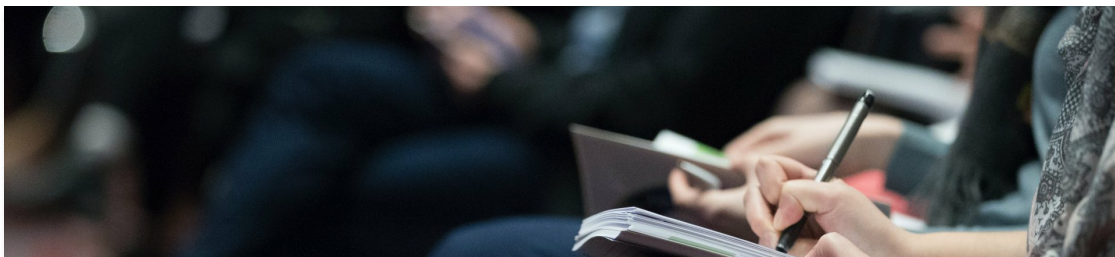

WilmerHale Senior Associate Marija Scekcic will discuss "Arbitrator's Power to Adapt the Contract Price," and Senior Associate Yoanna Schuch will present on the topic "When Corruption Crosses Borders – How to Determine the Applicable Law?"
