

Global Sanctions Summit

APRIL 8, 2019

The inaugural Kharon Global Sanctions Summit convenes sanctions and financial crimes compliance professionals, along with C-suite executives from leading global financial institutions, to discuss the impact of sanctions on global security policy, finance, and commerce. Panelists will offer current and forward-looking perspectives on the evolution of economic sanctions programs, legal and regulatory considerations, best practices, and impacts on international finance and global commerce.

Partner David Cohen will speak on a panel titled, "Close Hold: David Cohen, Janice Gardner and Juan Zarate at the Nexus of Sanctions and National Security."
