

Developments in Antitrust Law & Regulation 2019

APRIL 11, 2019
PLI NEW YORK CENTER

The Practicing Law Institute's Developments in Antitrust Law & Regulation 2019 event will feature an "Enforcement Issues and Opportunities for Antitrust Practitioners" panel, which will provide updates on the latest developments facing antitrust law today as well as enforcement trends.

The event will examine recent developments in several key areas of antitrust reflected in recent decisions as well as vigorous enforcement in the United States and around the world. Nationally known practitioners and senior government enforcement officials will report on and explore developments in competitor relationships, including cartels and other per se antitrust violations as well as the antitrust implications of joint ventures and other competitor collaborations; the legality of various vertical restraints on customers and suppliers; current merger analysis and enforcement; standards for compliance with US price discrimination laws; and the strategies and priorities of the antitrust enforcers, including increased cooperation among US and foreign competition authorities.
