

XIII Congreso Internacional de Arbitraje - IPA

APRIL 24–26, 2019
LIMA, PERU

The International Arbitration Congress, held annually in the city of Lima, Peru, is the key event for all professionals interested in commercial arbitration and investment arbitration. Undoubtedly, the success of its previous editions has allowed this important event to become the most important academic and professional activity in the South American region, not only because of the richness of the issues in debate, but also to bring together recognized arbitrators, partners of prestigious offices around the world, magistrates, lawyers, businessmen and public officials, among other practitioners of arbitration.
