

Merger Control, Foreign Investments and Trade: The path to gain necessary approvals in US and EU

MAY 28, 2019

FUKURACIA MARUNOUCHI OAZO

Please join us for a seminar hosted by WilmerHale to address developments in US and EU processes for gaining approval for planned transactions under applicable merger control and foreign investment review systems, as well as broader trade implications of such deals. The seminar will be hosted by senior members of our Antitrust and Competition and International Trade, Investment and Market Access Practices.

We will be providing insight into developments in merger control in the US and EU. We will also be addressing developments in US and EU foreign investment reviews including an update on the review process conducted by the interagency Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS), the emerging European Foreign Direct Investment framework, and relevant intersections with broader international trade, investment, and export control developments (particularly with respect to China).

We hope you can join us for this informative event.

Simultaneous translation will be provided throughout.
