

International Commercial Arbitration Seminars in Fiji

MAY 28, 2019
GRAND PACIFIC HOTEL

Senior Associate Jonathan Lim will speak at two International Commercial Arbitration Seminars hosted by the Fijian Government and the Asian Development Bank, one aimed at lawyers and one aimed at the private sector and public enterprises. As South Pacific countries continue to develop their international trade and investment agenda, and as foreign investment in the region grows, arbitration has become an important and popular method of resolving disputes within the international business community.
