

The Lauterpacht Centre Celebrates Cambridge PhD Books

JUNE 25, 2019

LAUTERPACHT CENTRE FOR INTERNATIONAL LAW

The Centre is delighted to host and celebrate the publication of books by PhD students. Chairs will ask the panelists questions about the key arguments of the books, common themes, different approaches and methodologies, the state of the field, experiences with publishing, and more.

WilmerHale Counsel Daniel Costelloe will speak during panel one on "Legal Consequences of Peremptory Norms in International Law (published by C.U.P)."
