

Bridge-the-Gap: Professional Practice for Newly Admitted Attorneys 2019

AUGUST 2, 2019
PLI NEW YORK CENTER

Fulfill your annual New York MCLE requirement for professional practice credit by attending this one-day program covering a variety of substantive law topics. Attorneys admitted in New York within the last two years will also satisfy their annual MCLE professional practice requirement by attending this program. This is your opportunity to satisfy your curiosity about an area of law that may be outside of your practice while earning the MCLE credit you need. You can satisfy your ethics and skills MCLE requirements at other programs.

Partner Erin G.H. Sloane will speak at the event.

Webcast will also be available.
