

6th Annual Dallas Roundtable: Presenting the Case to the Tribunal

2011-06-15

This year's workshop includes three acts revolving around the merits hearing phase of an international arbitration: assembling your case and evidence; presenting your case at the merits hearing; and presenting your testimonial evidence. Top arbitrators and practitioners will describe these scenes and comment on the practical and strategic issues.

WilmerHale counsel Noelle Berryman is co-moderating a panel discussion at this event entitled "Oral Evidence."
