

AAFPE North Central Regional Conference 2014

APRIL 11, 2014

This American Association for Paralegal Education conference will feature a host of guest speakers from around the region, who will gather to inform participants about essential and cutting-edge information and resources to ensure that paralegal students are as knowledgeable and marketable as possible in the continuing challenging legal market.

WilmerHale Discovery Attorney Staffing Manager Micheline Kidwell is a featured speaker at this event. She will participate in a panel entitled "Electronic Discovery in Practice and in the Classroom," which will discuss the basics of electronic discovery, focusing on review and analysis, and what it means for paralegal students. Ms. Kidwell will also discuss her role in at the firm, and experience with managing attorneys who review e-discovery files on a full-time basis.
