

Across Boundaries: Delivering on Edtech's Promise

BOSTON, MA

The purpose of Across Boundaries, which is co-sponsored by the Harvard Business School and Harvard Graduate School of Education, is to promote dialogue about digital learning. This third annual conference will examine how the most promising digital tools are being implemented in educational settings to increase student learning. The conference brings together a diverse set of voices to discuss the most challenging questions facing the edtech industry today.

More than 600 attendees who are passionate about edtech, including entrepreneurs, educators, investors, students and industry authorities are expected to be in attendance. This year's focus will be on empowering the edtech community to build, use and deliver effective and engaging digital tools and learning experiences.

LearnLaunch Institute is a nonprofit dedicated to increasing student achievement through the adoption of digital technologies. LearnLaunch Institute connects educators, entrepreneurs, learners, investors and industry affiliates in the education innovation ecosystem. It offers conferences, meetups, classes and other services to the edtech community.

LearnLaunch Institute is part of LearnLaunch, an organization dedicated to connecting, supporting and growing greater Boston's education technology ecosystem to drive innovation.
