

ALI-ABA: 34th Annual Advanced Postgraduate Course in Federal Securities Law

JUNE 28-29, 2007

This annual advanced course of study, comprising more than 12 hours of instruction, surveys critical developments in federal securities regulation and corporate governance, fosters a greater practical familiarity with the workings of the securities laws, and provides a fuller understanding of the interrelationships and consequences of the regulatory pattern.

WilmerHale partner Jonathan Wolfman was a featured speaker at this event. On the 28th, he spoke on the topic of, "The SEC's Executive Compensation Disclosure Rules: Results in the First Year" and on the 29th, he spoke on the topic of, "IPO Trends and Developments."
