

American Antitrust Institute: Annual National Conference

2008-06-19

AAI presented its 10th annual national conference which focused on the presentation of AAI's Transition Report on Competition Policy for the next Administration, which articulated the public policy agenda of AAI while providing the next Administration with specific suggestions for legislation and enforcement priorities.

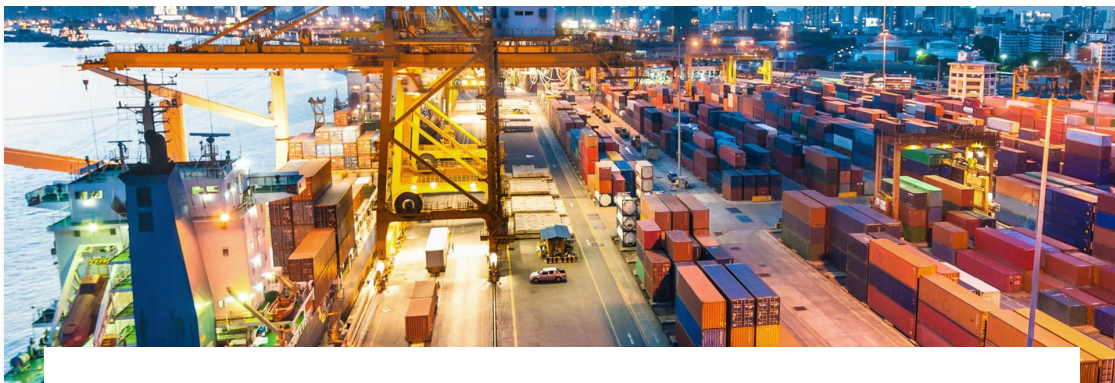

WilmerHale partner Douglas Melamed was part of a distinguished panel which discussed the topic, "Verticality Regains Relevance."
