

American Chamber of Commerce: Destination US – Outbound Investment Conference

2010-03-16

Destination: USA will host a two part program beginning with a morning seminar which will gather 100 motivated Chinese investors with significant interest in investing in the United States. These investors, invited by China Merchants Bank, have been identified as having serious interest in investing in the United States. This seminar will be an opportunity for American service providers to address this select audience in their respective fields of expertise. Each service provider will be allotted a speaking time to discuss their services and share a case study related to their experience advising new entrants into the US market.

The topics that are of interest to Chinese investors include:

- Legal issues to be considered in investing,
- Regulatory aspects of investing in the US,
- Financing,
- Labor relations and human resource management,
- Real estate options,
- Taxation issues,
- Sales and marketing.

WilmerHale counsel Kenneth Zhou spoke on the topic of "Investment in the US" at this event.
