

American Conference Institute's 17th National Forum on Global Export Controls Compliance

JUNE 12-13, 2014

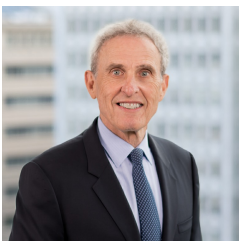

Each year, exporters attend American Conference Institute's "National Forum on Global Export Controls Compliance" to ensure that they are up-to-speed on all developments across the US, and foreign regulatory and enforcement landscapes. With a speaker faculty of senior decision-makers from government, and respected exporters and private practitioners, this event is a go-to forum for industry professionals responsible for all aspects of ITAR, EAR and OFAC compliance, as well as compliance with foreign export laws and regulations. The 2014 program includes unique topics and interactive formats, such as:

- Enhanced benchmarking through interactive audience polling
- New keynote addresses
- New US, UK and EU developments and corporate governance panels
- Moot court competition

WilmerHale Partner Ronald Meltzer is a featured speaker at this event, and will be presenting on the topic, "Conducting Internal Audits, Investigations and Compliance Assessments of High Risk, Multi-National Sites: How to Assess and Monitor Export and Re-Export Compliance Outside the US."
