

American Conference Institute's 3rd National Forum on Securities Litigation & Enforcement

FEBRUARY 27-28, 2014

This event will bring together experienced in-house counsel, leading litigators, renowned jurists, and regulatory and enforcement officials from federal and state agencies to provide the highest level insights on the most current developments in the field. Topics to be discussed include a review of securities litigation and enforcement case law year in review, new investigative techniques and successful litigation strategies related to insider trading, and a discussion of class actions in federal court, among others.

WilmerHale Partner Lori Martin provided opening remarks for the conference.
