

American Conference Institute's 6th West Coast FCPA Boot Camp

OCTOBER 1, 2013

As evidence of corruption surfaces, companies are rushing to conduct their own internal investigations in the many countries where they do business, costing massive amounts of money and resources. This conference will cover the practical know-how on determining the scope of an internal FCPA investigation, and how to develop a comprehensive work plan to meet investigative strategies and objectives.

WilmerHale Partner Randall Lee is a featured panelist at this event, and will present on the topic "How to Determine the Scope of an Internal FCPA Investigation: Developing a Comprehensive Work Plan to Meet Investigative Strategies and Objectives."
