

Boston Bar Association's Venture Capital and Private Equity Conference

BOSTON, MA

The Boston Bar's inaugural Venture Capital and Private Equity Conference is an opportunity for members of Boston's legal and business communities to gather for networking and discussions around key topics and trends at the intersection of capital investments and the law.

This half-day conference will cover a range of topics from the essentials of fund formation and term sheet negotiations, to more advanced discussions surrounding regulatory developments and recent trends in deal terms. Panelists will offer insights into challenges and opportunities ahead within the current fundraising environment and discuss best practices for attorneys to employ in their practice.

WilmerHale Partner Ed Pease will participate on the panel "Recent Developments in Regulatory Landscape for Early Stage Financing" and Senior Associate Jenna Ventorino will moderate the panel "Basics of a Series A Term Sheets."
