

Center for International Legal Studies: International Arbitration Symposium

MAY 24, 2014

The Center for International Legal Studies holds several law conferences for practitioners and scholars each year in exclusive venues across the globe, addressing on an international and comparative basis the legal challenges facing businesses, individuals and public authorities. The seminars offer complete educational and social experiences, with lodging, dining and leisure to complement professional and intellectual development.

WilmerHale Partner Dr. Maxi Scherer will be a panelist during the discussion entitled, "International Arbitration in the Energy Sector – Recent Developments."
