

Center for Legal Inclusiveness 2015 Legal Inclusiveness & Diversity Summit

MAY 4, 2015

The annual Legal Inclusiveness & Diversity Summit, now in its 9th year, is the original and premier inclusiveness conference for the legal profession. Leading national experts and distinguished speakers present on cutting-edge, substantive topics. The spring conference attracts attorneys and legal professionals from Colorado and across the country including corporate counsel, law firm and government attorneys, prominent judges, diversity directors, legal recruiters, paralegals, law school faculty and students, and others who want to learn about the newest developments on diversity in the law.

WilmerHale Partner Ken Salazar will discuss how diversity is changing the landscape in the workplace, business and politics and the many ways lawyers must embrace diversity and inclusiveness to become better lawyers and leaders during the Summit Plenary: "Changing Landscapes."
