

Congressional Internet Caucus Advisory Committee: 6th Annual State of the Net Conference

2010-01-27

The Congressional Internet Caucus Advisory Committee (ICAC) presented the 6th Annual State of the Net Conference which offered attendees the opportunity to hear keynote speakers and panel discussions focused on framing policy debates around recent developments such as global free expression, broadband deployment, open government, and cloud computing. In addition to hearing from keynote speakers and panelists, attendees were able to engage in lively discussions and debates centered around privacy/security, telecommunications regulation, intellectual property and innovation, cloud computing, youth online safety, Internet governance and more.

WilmerHale partner David Weller was a featured speaker at this event. He moderated the First Annual Judith Krug Memorial Intellectual Freedom Panel entitled, "Global Free Expression: Can The Internet Reign or Get Reined In?"
