

Corporate 101 for Immigration Practitioners

JUNE 24, 2015

Hear from both a corporate attorney and a business immigration practitioner as they review fundamental principles and provide practical tips for successful case preparation.

Panelists will cover key corporate and financial principles that regularly arise in immigration matters such as analysis of SEC filings, corporate tax returns, audited financial statements, and other relevant materials to demonstrate corporate ownership structures, ability to pay, substantiality of an investment, and other issues common to employment-based immigration matters.

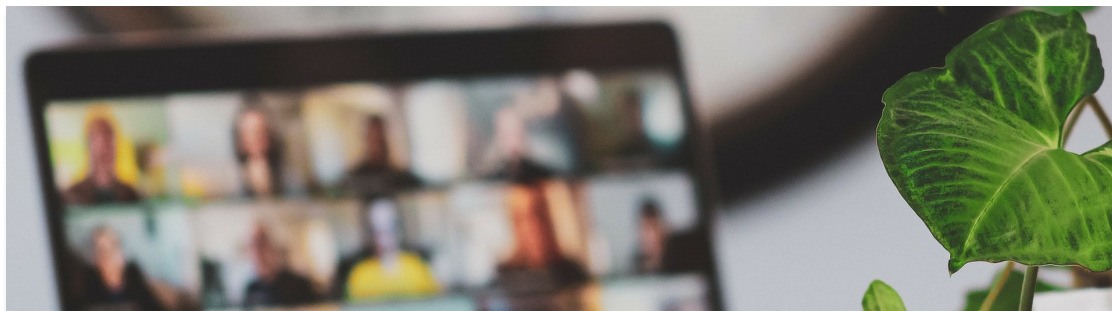

WilmerHale Senior Associate Stephanie Singer is a panelist at this event.
