

Corporate Governance 2006: Best Practices for Gatekeepers

2006-02-08

Within today's environment of heightened regulatory and judicial activity, general counsel and their counsel must develop best practices to ensure good governance that will withstand the most rigorous scrutiny from regulators and shareholders alike. At this daylong program, a panel of experts along with current and former officials of the Securities and Exchange Commission, will discuss the latest trends and developments affecting governance at public companies. WilmerHale partner Andrew Vollmer will be a featured panelist during the afternoon portion of this event.
