

Dodd Bill and Credit Ratings: The Latest Legislative and Regulatory Developments

2010-06-17

The government's regulatory authority over credit rating agencies could significantly expand due to proposals currently pending in Congress. However, regulatory changes under consideration could alter the use of credit ratings in SEC rules and disclosure about credit ratings. The latest round of legislative and regulatory changes targeting credit ratings and credit rating agencies has received an ever-increasing level of criticism of the industry.
