

Doing Business in China

2012-04-10

Join us for an inside view on doing business in China from Ambassador Charlene Barshefsky, former US Trade Representative, architect and chief negotiator of China's historic WTO Agreement and WilmerHale senior international partner.

Companies looking to launch, expand or improve business operations in China, or invest in the China market, will benefit from this timely discussion. Topics will include Chinese government policies, the current regulatory environment, intellectual property challenges and other legal considerations.

Network with fellow senior executives and innovators navigating this complex landscape, and have your questions answered by a leading authority on international business and economic and trade issues.

Presentation to be followed by a cocktail reception.
