

Doing Business in China

2011-12-01

Join us for an inside view on doing business in China from Ambassador Charlene Barshefsky, former US Trade Representative, architect and chief negotiator of China's historic WTO Agreement and WilmerHale Senior International Partner.

Companies looking to launch, expand or improve business operations, or invest in the China market, will benefit from this timely discussion. Topics will include Chinese government policies, the current regulatory environment, intellectual property challenges and other practical considerations.

Network over breakfast with fellow senior executives navigating this complex environment, and have your questions answered by a leading authority on international business and economic and trade issues.
