

European Centre for International Political Economy Conference: Digital Single Market – the Fifth Freedom

MAY 6, 2015

Directly following the announcement of the new European strategy for a Digital Single Market, the event will open the public debate on how to liberalise the fifth freedom of movement, namely data – within the Internal Market and globally. The Digital Single Market is instrumental to improving productivity, and will Europe get it right?

WilmerHale Partner Naboth van den Broek will speak about the trade and investment implications of Europe's new Digital Single Market Strategy at this event.
