

Efficiencies and Competitive Effects: Evaluating and Arguing Efficiencies in Merger Control

2003-11-28

Wilmer, in conjunction with the Centre for European Policy Studies and Lexecon, will host a seminar on November 18, 2003, in Brussels, entitled "Efficiencies and Competitive Effects: Evaluating and Arguing Efficiencies in Merger Control." Among the speakers will be the new Chief Economist at the European Commission, Lars-Hendrik Röller, who will make his first public speech on the place of efficiencies in merger control. The seminar will focus on both the practical and policy aspects of efficiencies analysis in merger control.
