

Emerging Anti-Corruption Law Enforcement: What European Companies Should Know

2006-04-04

WilmerHale and PricewaterhouseCoopers are pleased to offer a complimentary seminar addressing important recent developments in anti-corruption laws, focusing on the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and the laws that are of importance to European business. The timely program is designed for executives and lawyers responsible for compliance with rising anti-corruption standards. Eminent practitioners in the field - including Nicola Bonucci, Director of Legal Affairs at the OECD; Jermyn Brooks, Executive Director and CFO of Transparency International; and Janice L. Innis-Thompson, Vice President and Chief Compliance Counsel for Tyco International (US) Inc. - will provide you with their insights.
