

Environmental Due Diligence: Trends, Opportunities and Pitfalls

Please join Hale and Dorr LLP and Vertex Engineering Services, Inc., at a seminar focusing on the value and role of environmental due diligence techniques for business today. Managing environmental risks has become increasingly complex and important as the value and frequency of business and real estate transactions has grown. Experienced technical and legal panelists will offer their insights on new trends and specialized diligence techniques. For details and registration, please contact Louise Rothery at +1 617 526 5606 or marketing.department@haledorr.com.
