

Fighting Corruption in America and Abroad: Fordham Law Review Symposium 2015

MARCH 6, 2015

This full-day symposium will focus on defining corruption and initiatives to regulate it within the United States, internationally, and in foreign countries. The symposium will include a keynote address delivered by Preet Bharara, US Attorney for the Southern District of New York, and four panel discussions among legal academics, prosecutors, defense lawyers, economists, and political philosophers.

WilmerHale Partner Jay Holtmeier will participate in the presentation "Corruption Regulation in Practice via the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act."
