

Finding Common Ground in an EU-US Trade and Investment Agreement (TTIP)

FEBRUARY 27, 2013

A day after the State of the Union address, a report of the US- EU High Level Working Group on Jobs and Growth was presented, which recommends to US and EU leaders that the United States and the European Union launch negotiations on a comprehensive, ambitious agreement. This seminar will explore the prospects of finding common ground in a Free Trade Agreement between the EU and US.

WilmerHale Partner Naboth van den Broek was a featured speaker at this event, and participated in a panel discussing the topic "Where can we find common ground on a Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership in the High Tech sector?"
