

Fourth International Berlin Business and Trade Law Conference

1999-04-30

Wilmer's Berlin office will again co-sponsor a conference at Humboldt University. This year's topic is "The International Business Law of the Internet" ("Das internationale Wirtschaftsrecht des Internet"). While the main conference language will be German, some speeches will be held in English. Among the speakers and panelists will be Professor Christoph Paulus (Humboldt University of Berlin), Wilmer partner David Johnson (former Director of the Aspen Institute Internet Policy Project, former chairman of Counsel Connect and the Electronic Frontier Foundation), Dieter Wolf (president of the German Federal Cartel Office), Professor Gerald Spindler (Georg-August University of Göttingen), Vincent P. Dolan (Dresdner Bank AG), Professor Ulrich Immenga (Georg-August University of Göttingen), Christopher Wilkinson (EU Commission, DG XIII), Josef Brink (German Federal Ministry of Justice), Wilmer partner James S. Venit (co-chairman of the firm's Antitrust Practice Group), Manfred Balz (General Counsel, Deutsche Telekom AG) and Tanja Jessen (CompuServe). An exhibition of artist Chris Newman's works will open after the conference at a reception in our Berlin office.
