

FTC: Start With Security

SAN FRANCISCO, CA

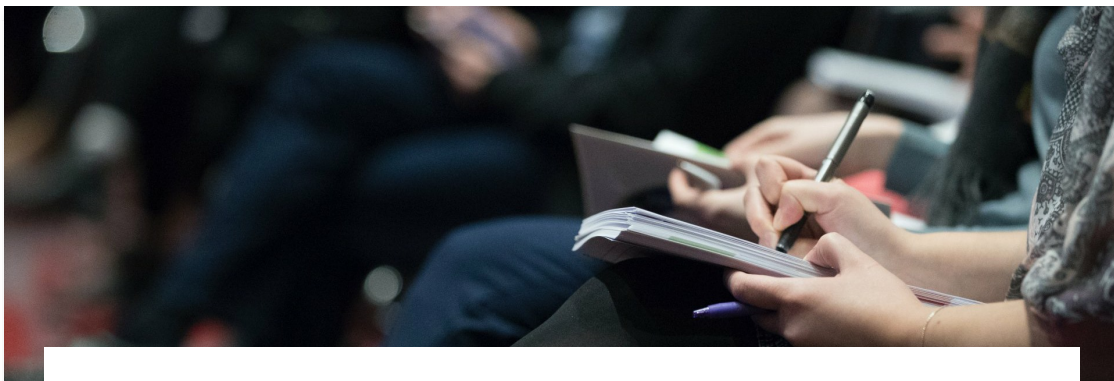

The FTC's first "Start With Security" conference is scheduled for September 9, 2015, in San Francisco, and is co-sponsored by the University of California Hastings College of the Law. It is part of a business education initiative designed to provide companies with practical resources to help them implement effective data security strategies.

Aimed at startups and developers, this event will bring together experts to provide information on security by design, common security vulnerabilities, strategies for secure development, and vulnerability response. "Start with Security" will run from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. PDT. The event is free and open to the public. No pre-registration is necessary. Lunch is provided. This event will be webcast.

The conference series is part of the agency's longstanding efforts to provide businesses with guidance about how to put effective security in place.
