

Harvard Law School Celebration of Public Interest: Public Interest Success Stories

2008-03-14

Harvard Law School hosted "A Celebration of Public Interest" reunion event to connect with classmates and other lawyers who are doing public interest and pro bono work. This event brought together HLS graduates from across the years and across practice settings who are engaged in public service activities—from the nonprofit sector, the government sector, public international practice, the private bar, academia and the judiciary.

Counsel Rachel Brand participated on the Public Interest Success Stories panel.
