

Impact of U.S. Financial Regulatory Reform On Global Banking Groups

APRIL 2, 2014

This seminar, hosted by Transnational Legal Studies, will focus on the impact of US financial regulatory reform on global banking groups. Leading legal, government and industry authorities will address the key policy areas and business issues of importance, including the enhanced prudential standards for large FBOs; risk governance, litigation and enforcement; the Volcker Rule; recovery and resolution planning; and OTC derivatives (including swap dealers). This event will present a particularly valuable opportunity to learn about the latest developments in the ongoing implementation of these reforms, and benefit from a cutting-edge view of the road ahead.

WilmerHale Partner Stephanie Avakian will be a featured speaker at this event, and participate in a panel entitled "Risk Governance, Litigation and Enforcement." The panel will focus on the current US litigation and enforcement environment and what the future holds for the industry.
