

Intellectual Property Owners Association: Moving Away From the Billable Hour in Patent Litigation

2009-11-12

Presented by Intellectual Property Owners Association as part of its weekly webinar series on current topics in IP, this webinar will focus on fixed fees and the demise of the billable hour. Predicted for years, today's economic woes are finally pushing alternative fee arrangements into the mainstream. Participants of this event will have the opportunity to hear how others have tried to incorporate fixed fees into high-stakes patent litigation and how it has worked for clients and top law firms.

WilmerHale Co-Managing Partner William F. Lee will be a featured speaker for this event.
