

Intellectual Property Owners Association: The Increasing Role of Antitrust Principles in Defining Patent Rights

2008-06-09

This conference, presented by IPOA, will examine the role of competition law by the courts and antitrust enforcement agencies in defining patent rights. Panels will discuss a variety of industries and topics dealing with this ever-challenging intersection of patent and antitrust law.

WilmerHale partner Doug Melamed will be a speaker on a panel entitled, "Antitrust Implications of Standards Organization IP Policies."
