

Internal & Government Investigations Conference

The Internal & Government Investigations Conference brings together a vast array of government and regulatory officials, seasoned legal counsel and savvy defense experts to share their experience and knowledge. Attend and learn effective ways to implement compliance protocols and manage investigations successfully.

WilmerHale Partner David Wilson speaks on a panel with David Stuart, Senior Counsel - Investigations/Regulatory, General Electric. The two analyze potential disclosure obligations to shareholders including, knowing what to disclose and when to disclose it; exploring possible effects and consequences of disclosure on a company given decisions to withhold/disclose findings; debating hypothetical disclosure situations and determining proper operating procedures, and; understanding why you may or may not want to disclose filings to shareholders.
