

International Law Institute: 2014 Conference on Interim Measures in International Arbitration

APRIL 24, 2014

The International Investment Law Center (IILC) and ADR Center of the International Law Institute (ILI) are pleased to announce a conference on Interim Measures in International Arbitration. The conference will feature four panels of internationally renowned speakers on this highly topical subject, covering timely and important issues such as:

- "The Power of Arbitral Tribunals to Offer Interim Relief"
- "National Court Powers to Order Interim Measures, or to Enforce Orders Made by Arbitral Tribunals"
- "Interim Relief in Investment Treaty Arbitration"
- "Emergency Relief in International Arbitration"

WilmerHale Partner Rachael Kent will be a featured speaker on the panel "National Court Powers to Order Interim Measures, or to Enforce Orders Made by Arbitral Tribunals." She will address the overlapping jurisdiction of courts and arbitrators to award interim measures in aid of arbitration.
