

International Quality & Productivity Center: Internal & Government Investigations

JANUARY 16-17, 2008

The Internal & Government Investigations Conference brings together a vast array of government and regulatory officials, seasoned legal counsel and savvy defense experts to share their experience and knowledge at this two-day conference. Attendees will have the opportunity to learn about effective ways to implement compliance protocols and manage investigations successfully.

WilmerHale Partner David Wilson will speak on a panel with David Stuart, Senior Counsel - Investigations/Regulatory, General Electric. The two will analyze potential disclosure obligations to shareholders including, knowing what to disclose and when to disclose it; exploring possible effects and consequences of disclosure on a company given decisions to withhold/disclose findings; debating hypothetical disclosure situations and determining proper operating procedures, and; understanding why you may or may not want to disclose filings to shareholders.
