

John E.C. Brierley Memorial Lecture: “The Law Applicable to International Arbitration Agreements Past, Present and Future”

DECEMBER 3, 2013

This lecture on arbitration commemorates the life and work of John E.C. Brierley, who was Professor and Dean of Law at McGill University. He was a prominent figure in the discipline of comparative law internationally and the leading Canadian authority on arbitration.

Gary Born, Chair of Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP's International Arbitration Group, delivered the lecture. View Mr. Born's lecture.

The John E.C. Brierley Memorial Lecture is presented by McGill and its Research Team on Private Justice and the Rule of Law, with the participation of the Canadian Bar Association (Québec branch). It was followed by a cocktail sponsored by Woods LLP.
