

KPMG Audit Committee Institute Roundtable: Risk Oversight in an Evolving Environment

2008-06-01

This roundtable, presented by KPMG, gave attendees the perspective of audit committee members and other directors, and considered the audit committee's role in overseeing key "downturn-related risks," including liquidity, access to capital, and the increased risk of earnings management during a period of economic pessimism. Also presented was how to effectively focus an oversight.

WilmerHale Partner Thomas White spoke on the topic of "Pressure Points, Priorities and Oversight Challenges."
