

Legal Landmines: What to Know When Starting Your Startup

NOVEMBER 17, 2012

Starting a new company is hard, but putting in place the right legal framework for your business doesn't have to be. WilmerHale Associate Stephanie Singer co-presented to entrepreneurs at the Brown University Venture Labs. During the session, the presenters shared tips to avoid the most common costly mistakes when starting a company. Topics included: founder equity, employee compensation and hiring, capital raising tips, legal entities and intellectual property strategies.
