

Legal Publishing Group of Strafford Publications: Export Declaration Regulations: New Penalty Guidelines

2009-04-07

This seminar, presented by the Legal Publishing Group of Strafford Publications, will give attendees the opportunity to explore the types of violations that commonly arise in Federal Trade Regulation export declarations requirements, the U.S. Customs and Border Protection's new mitigation regulations and best practices for business to comply with the requirements and avoid or minimize penalty liability. In addition, an authoritative panel of international trade attorneys will examine the CBP regulations, guidelines, types of violations that trigger enforcement action and the new mitigation regulations. This panel will offer their best practices for mitigating penalty liability in the event of a violation.

WilmerHale Partner Ronald Meltzer will be a featured speaker at this program.
