Legal Publishing Group of Strafford Publications: Foreign Third-Party Violations of U.S. Laws in International Transactions

2009-05-14

At this seminar, presented by the Legal Publishing Group of Strafford Publications, attendees will have the opportunity to listen in as an authoritative panel of international business attorneys review the laws governing international transactions, discuss lessons learned from recent enforcement actions and offer compliance strategies to minimize exposure for foreign third party violations. This seminar will also examine the steps in which businesses and their counsel can take to protect themselves from liability exposure.

WilmerHale partner Ronald Meltzer will be a featured speaker at this seminar.
